

CHICAGO PUBLIC LIBRARY

Brainerd Branch

Calling All Writers

To Be Young, Gifted, & Black: A Creativity Series

We are looking for essay writers to participate in our annual “A Letter to the President of the USA” Writing Contest.

Essay Theme:

“Dear President Barack Obama, Why I like the School I attend”

Starts: Tuesday, January 2, 2013

Ends: Thursday, January 31, 2013

Essay must be received on or before Thursday, January 31, 2013 at the Brainerd Branch, 1350 W. 89th Street, Chicago, IL 60620.

For additional information, please call (312) 747-6291.
Recommended for students in grades 3rd - 8th

Essay Rules and Guidelines:

1. Essay must be 200 words or less.
2. Writer must complete and attach a submission form.
3. One essay per student.
4. One winner will be chosen from each grade level, for a total of six (6) winners.
5. Winners will be selected on Friday, May 31, 2013.
6. Winners will be notified on Monday, June 10, 2013.
7. All winners will receive a prize and recognition during the summer reading program opening ceremony.

Brainerd Branch, 1350 W. 89th Street Chicago, IL 60620 (312) 747-6291

Service Hours: M & W, 10 a.m. - 6 p.m.; T & Th, 12 p.m. - 8 p.m.; F & S, 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sun., closed

City of Chicago
Rahm Emanuel
Mayor

Chicago
Public Library

chicagopubliclibrary.org

Please call for accommodations:
(312) 747-4252 (Voice)
(312) 747-4066 (TTY)

Please consider the environment when disposing of this material – Read, Reuse, Recycle.